

Science, Religion and Spirituality

Conclusion

Science, Religion and Spirituality

CONCLUSION

- Sanatana Dharma encompasses all aspects of Religion & Spirituality in scientific manner.
- SD affords variety of Paths – thus meeting different people's needs.
- SD does not oppose Science or rigorous examination of its precepts scientifically.
- Thus, SD allows scientists to look at, learn and go to Religion & Spirituality to answer questions science is unable to answer and in a logical (and scientific) manner.
